Fulton Communications continues expansion by opening offices Cincinnati and Columbus, Ohio

Industry veteran Dan Zieverink chosen as Managing Partner to lead effort in Ohio

Norcross, GA November 11th, 2011: Fulton Communications, the leading provider of VOIP solutions, announced the opening of their thirteenth and fourteenth offices today. The new offices will be in Columbus and Cincinnati, Ohio and will be led by accomplished industry veteran Dan Zieverink.

Zieverink brings over 20 years of sales leadership and success in the telecommunications industry to his new role at Fulton. Before joining Fulton Dan spent 14 years with Inter-Tel/Mitel, most recently as an Area Director. Previous to Mitel he spent six years with Norstan as Operations manager and Director of Sales support. He started his career with Tel-Plus in 1982 after receiving an Associate's Degree in Computer Science from Southern Ohio College "We are very fortunate to have someone the caliber of Dan join our family at Fulton Communications" said Ben Treadway, CEO of Fulton Communications. "I've known Dan for many years since our days together at Inter-Tel and he's always had top producing offices." commented Treadway.

"I'm very excited to be re-united with Ben and his team at Fulton. Ben has really grown the business in a few short years and I'm looking forward to being part of the explosive growth moving forward" said Zieverink.

About Fulton Communications: Fulton Communications is the leading provider of advanced VOIP applications including unified communication, collaboration, mobility, and other advanced telephony software applications. Fulton has been providing technology solutions for over 46 years and brings a rich heritage of providing outstanding solutions that provide a solid return on investment (ROI) for the end user.
